Pupils

Teaching and Learning – pupils deserve the highest possible standard of teaching and support to help them learn

School will:

- Provide a broad and balanced curriculum which challenges and motivates pupils
- Tell you about the work your child is doing

Home will:

- Take an interest in what your child is learning
- Praise your child for effort and good work

Pupils will:

- Come to school ready to learn
 - Work hard in lessons

Attendance – pupils have a right to education and parents have a legal responsibility to make sure that children attend regularly

School will:

- Inform you as soon as possible if your child is absent without explanation
- Recognise and reward good attendance

Home will:

- Make every effort to make sure that your child attends school regularly and on time
- Inform the school as soon as possible about any absence and the reason for it

Pupils will:

- Attend regularly and arrive on time

Behaviour and discipline – pupils learn best in an orderly environment where everyone knows what is expected of them

School will:

- Have a behaviour policy which creates a safe and caring environment for everyone
- Make sure that all staff, pupils and parents know what behaviour is expected

Home will:

- Give praise at home for good behaviour at school
- Work with the school to find solutions in cases of unacceptable behaviour

Pupils will:

- Keep school and class rules

Homework – learning at home has an important part to play in helping pupils to achieve

School will:

- Keep you informed about your arrangements for homework and consult you if changes are planned
- Provide suitable materials and advice on homework and how to help with reading

Home will:

- Offer help and support with learning at home
- Encourage your child to read regularly
- Make sure that materials borrowed from school are returned

Pupils will:

- Take home any work set
 - Do homework and take it back to school on time
 - Read regularly and return books to school

Communication – good communication between home and school is essential to make sure that pupils get the support they need

School will:

- Make sure that you have information about your child's progress and behaviour
- Arrange for you to discuss your child's progress and to set targets for the future
- Make sure that we listen to concerns and do our best to help
- Teach your child how to stay safe and be respectful online

Home will:

- Tell school about anything which might affect your child's work or behaviour
- Talk with teachers on parents' evenings or at other times about your child's progress
- Raise concerns directly and promptly with school
- Support the school approach to online safety and refrain from uploading information that could upset or offend members of the school community or bring the school into disrepute

Pupils will:

- Take home letters, notes and reports from school and give them to parents or carers
- Talk with parents or carers and teachers about any worries in school
- Be respectful of other people and the school when online

A message to parents and carers from the Headteacher and Chair of Governors

Welcome to Mill Lane Primary School. We believe that a close partnership between home and school is vital to help children and young people get the best from their education.

Home-school agreements are a part of every school's partnership with parents. This agreement enables parents, teachers and pupils at our school to make a clear commitment to working together.

The agreement makes clear what is expected of teachers, parents, carers and pupils, so that pupils will be able to work hard and be happy, safe and successful at school. We hope that it will also help parents to take an active part in their child's education at Mill Lane School.

At school we are determined to give each pupil every chance to do well. We look forward to a strong partnership with home to give your child the best possible support.

* Please note: 'Parents' in this agreement means anyone who has parental responsibility for the pupil.
